

Beyond Boundaries

Accelerating your
C-Suite Journey
Executive Leadership Development

Our goal is to prepare Black executives for the C-Suite and overcome the “hiding in plain sight” phenomenon.

Opening Session Begins
September 18, 2024

The Landscape is Shifting

The C-Suite is transforming. The definition of what it means to be an authentic leader has shifted. Every leader needs to build strategic relationships, hone agile skills, and be ready to successfully navigate the future. The ability to lead digital transformation, regardless of your domain, has become a non-negotiable. The business leader will need to look and move beyond prescriptive boundaries to drive success and growth through crisis moments and massive disruption across the globe.

The Challenge

The charge deepens as we examine unique challenges for Black executives. Are you ready for the challenge? How do you make critical decisions that impact top and bottom-line growth? Do you understand how the mind and the machine will continue to evolve? Don't worry, The Leverage Network is here to help! We will Prepare you for C-suite journey, Position you for greater visibility, and Promote you for viable opportunities.

Our Solution

Beyond Boundaries is an executive leadership development program designed to prepare Black executives for C-Suite roles and overcome the “hiding in plain sight” phenomenon. The Leverage Network's Beyond Boundaries provides key lessons in relationship management, strategic thinking and decision making that support leaders to thrive in the highest echelons of their companies. Participants walk away from this experience empowered, accountable, and ready to excel.
